

I had a strange weekend. I went camping with my family because we wanted to sleep outside, but my dad forgot to take the tent! We tried to make a tent with a blanket, but it wasn't very good.

We were cold. We needed to make a fire, but we didn't have any firewood. Then it started to rain, and our sleeping bags got wet. We had to come home. We still want to sleep outside someday.

Zoe